

We use our XM Radio to give us information, because we live in a very remote area, and the radio stations do not always tune in clear. We use traffic and weather information a great deal. We deliver Aermotor Windmills and towers that we manufacture, so it is important that we receive accurate information carrying such a heavy load of steel.